

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Cooperative Extension Service at South Dakota State University has a history of working on educational programs based on the needs expressed by local citizens; and,

WHEREAS, Each year over 21,000 South Dakota citizens are involved as volunteers in planning or implementing cooperative extension programming in their local communities; and,

WHEREAS, Educational assistance was provided in agriculture, home economics and 4-H to over 8,900 South Dakota families on a typical day in 1985 through Cooperative Extension; and,

WHEREAS, The main areas of educational emphasis identified during 1985 dealt with helping farmers and ranchers cope with the current economic crises by using research, teaching, and extension program resources available to them through their Land-Grant University; and,

WHEREAS, Under the Rural Renaissance Program, launched from this office in December, we have invited financially troubled families to become acquainted with all state and local resources available to them during times of financial stress; and,

WHEREAS, We have identified the local Cooperative Extension office as a starting point for those interested in obtaining such help:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of January 19-25, 1986, as

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION WEEK

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
